

Facing Hunger: Feeding America

NEW YORK, April 28, 2008

(CBS) The Early Show kicked off our very own 12-day food drive Monday. We're calling it "Facing Hunger: Feeding America."

With food prices rising, the economy slumping and more and more American families struggling to get by, help is needed more than ever.

We'll be collecting non-perishable foods until May 10, when the nation's largest single-day food drive, "Stamp Out Hunger," will take place.

We invite you all to stop by our plaza at 59th Street and Fifth Avenue in Manhattan between 7 a.m. and 9 a.m. to donate, or go to your local CBS affiliate and local food banks.

You could also send canned foods to:

FOOD DRIVE
THE EARLY SHOW
767 5th Avenue
New York, N.Y. 10153

Among the many affiliates and stations owned-and-operated by CBS accepting donations:

WBZ-TV/Boston

Please send donations to:
The Greater Boston Food Bank
99 Atkinson Street
Boston, MA 02118

KPHO/PHOENIX

KPHO will be taking part in an event with a Phoenix area grocer and Postal Carriers. Meteorologist Paul Horton will be living in a Fry's Marketplace 24 hours a day starting Monday at 4:30am and ending Friday at 12 Noon. He'll be encouraging viewers to bring donations down to the store. If they can't make it, he'll encourage viewers to leave canned goods by their mailbox on Saturday, May 10th as part of Postal Carriers' "Stamp Out Hunger Campaign." All of the donated items will go to local foodbanks.

DESERT MISSION FOOD BANK
9229 N. 4th Street, Phoenix 85020

www.jcl.com

Desert Mission Food Bank began helping the hungry of North Phoenix in the 1920s and has expanded its services to meet the health, wellness and hunger needs of our community. In 2005/2006, Desert Mission Food Bank distributed nearly 1,680,061 pounds of food. More than 160,296 people received food through emergency food boxes, government commodities and food cooperative programs. More than 60 percent of those served by Desert Mission Food Bank are children and seniors. Desert Mission Food Bank is part of the John C. Lincoln Health Network. With the creation of the "4th Street Market" we are able to provide emergency and food security programs and services, in a dignified and respectful manner to all individuals and families in our community who meet program specific criteria. In order to meet our mission of serving the community, the Desert Mission Food Bank depends on caring volunteers and generous donors, who are an integral and essential part of our organization.

ST. MARY'S FOOD BANK ALLIANCE
2831 N. 31st Avenue, Phoenix 85009-1518

www.firstfoodbank.org

St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance, a member of America's Second Harvest, serves 13 of Arizona's 15 counties. The Alliance is the blending of two major food banks and Valley icons -- St. Mary's Food Bank and Westside Food Bank, which merged on September 1, 2005. Distributing more than 200,000 pounds of food every day, the Food Bank is committed to providing food to Arizonans in need through 850 partner agencies sites throughout the state. These agencies serve a wide range of clients, the majority of those being families with children and seniors. The Food Bank has five locations in the Valley and Flagstaff, making its services easily accessible for agencies and their clients.

UNITED FOOD BANK
358 East Javelina Avenue, Mesa 85210-6207
480-926-4897 FAX 480-926-7025
www.unitedfoodbank.org

Committed to reducing hunger by acting as a community bridge between those who want to help and those who are in need, United Food Bank has served eastern Maricopa County, Gila and Pinal Counties and southern Apache and Navajo Counties since 1983. In 2005/06, United Food Bank distributed nearly 13 million pounds of food to 242 partner agencies and sister food banks - food enough to provide more than 9.9 million meals. The United Food Bank warehouse averages processing 50 tons of food every workday. United Food Bank leverages every $1 of expenses into $10.67 worth of food distributed - enough to provide 5½ meals. As a member of America's Second Harvest - The Nation's Food Bank Network, United Food Bank consistently ranks as one of the most efficient food banks in Arizona and the nation and has been awarded Charity Navigator's highest 4-star rating.
